DEFENDANTS, HART AND STROZYK’S MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE CUMULATIVE LAY WITNESS TESTIMONY

AND NOW COME, the Defendants, James Hart and John Strozyk, by and through counsel, Harry T. Coleman, Esquire, hereby moves to preclude the Plaintiff from presenting cumulative lay witness testimony at the time of trial. The grounds for this Motion are that the repetitive testimony of lay witnesses will result in undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence. Therefore, Plaintiff should be precluded from presenting any cumulative lay witness testimony at the time of trial.

Respectfully submitted,
